The Lord Provides:

Recently Ruth & her family have been faced with situation which has been very upsetting & worrying for the family. As a result, they've been forced to look for a new house. Last week the Lord provided a wonderful new home for them, even closer to church. Thank you, God, for Your amazing provision for this family.

Bringing God's Love to the Lost & Needy:

While accompanying a couple of his not-yet-Christian friends to a rave last weekend, John had the opportunity to care for and minister to a man who was ill & suffering the effects of drugs.

John reminded us of the following Truths...

“While we were still sinners, Christ died for us” (Rom 5:8).

“For the Lord is great & greatly to be praised” (Psa 96:4).

The Wonder of the Cross:

Rosemary shared beautiful words from a song about never losing the wonder of the Cross. What love, what grace, what a cost!!!! Thank you, Jesus!

Persevere & the Harvest Will Come:

Aaron has been pondering the subject of reaping a harvest at the right time if we persevere (Gal. 6). The harvest sometimes seems very minimal. God has been encouraging Aaron to press on – remembering that sharing the Gospel is a privilege – the harvest will come in God's time. We are all equipped to share God's love & our faith.

Father's Love:

The story of the Prodigal Son is one of Mark's favourite passages of scripture. What an awesome picture of the relentless love of our God! Through his own experiences as a dad, Mark is discovering even more of the Heavenly Father's love.

God's Goodness in the Midst of Troubles:

Rachel has been in the midst of a difficult extended family situation for a few years. She has been crying out for breakthrough, and although the circumstances haven't changed, Rachel is certain of God's presence in that place. God is good! His goodness doesn't depend on our circumstances. Thank you, Father, for Your sustaining love for this family.
